Hello Readers

I do so love it when a company that's been in the Oracle for a while tells me how effective their advertising has been. That's what we're there for! So I was very happy to go and meet advertiser David Giles at Simply Bathrooms in Maulden to find out more. I had a tour of their ever expanding showroom and met the team. If you could judge a company on how nice the people are, then Simply Bathrooms would come out top! What a lovely bunch of folk who clearly enjoy working together and share a common work ethic. Find out more on page 44.

And here's me with my dog Lulu. We're getting ready for the annual Dog Walk for Dementia in Amphill Park on 23rd June. It's in aid of the Alzheimer's Society - a charity very close to my heart. See the advert on page 59 for more details. I know that June is such a busy time for Galas and fêtes, but we'd love to see you there.

If you're a parent of teenagers, then you know that June is all about the exams. To all the students (and parents, as I'm one of them!) going through them, may I wish you the best of luck!!

All the Best,

Kirsty

Broken Or Damaged Windows? Faulty Locks, Handles, Hinges?

THE Outdoors Mum

There is so much to do in our own gardens but occasionally we need a little inspiration. Just stepping outside can be a challenge sometimes but if we plan ahead there is so much fun to be had and let's face it, our babies and toddlers don't know the value of money so we don't need to break the bank.

A great activity to get young children engaged is water play. While you could splash some cash on a water table, a storage container, bucket or washing up bowl can washing up bowl can be just as fun. I put some flowers from the garden in a washing bowl for Daisy and not only did she enjoy splashing she enjoyed trying to fish out the flowers with a mini sieve but a spoon will do just fine. This activity is great for concentration and hand-eye coordination. We also used a ladle and a few plastic cups we had in the cupboard. I wouldn't expect this activity to last too long but it's fun and sociable if you have multiple children or are hosting a play date.

Another Activity which Daisy, who's just turned 2, recently enjoyed at Easter was a carrot hunt. Some may say that it's criminal to not hide chocolate but I had lots of carrots at home and so we went hunting for the Easter Rabbit's lunch! Of course you can hide anything and reward at the end with a prize or just enjoy the fun. This activity could be done anywhere not just in your own garden. Hiding anything your child would recognise will work well.

The outside can be super educational too and a great place to learn new words and touch and feel new objects imprinting them in our memories. Just recently I picked a weed in the field and showed Daisy that when you blow it, the dried dandelion seeds go flying like little helicopters. She loved it and to her it wasn't a weed, it was magical. I made a little wish for her too. I bet you can imagine yourself blowing the dandelion like a child bringing back your own happy childhood memories.

No matter how long you go outside for or how long the activity lasts just appreciate the very fact you've given your child some freedom to explore the outdoors and surroundings. It's great for de-stressing and for improving our mental health too.

Nurturing Independent Little People: BARTON LE CLAY PRE-SCHOOL

Barton Le Clay Pre-School is a village pre-school that believes in quality interactions with children bringing out the very best in them!

We are situated within the grounds of Ramsey Manor Lower School and enjoy frequent visits to Lively Land which is a beautiful forest area nestled between the lower school and Arnold Academy. We have been on our site since 2010, but established for over forty years after being relocated from the village hall. We are now in a purpose-built premise.

We aim to provide an environment that is not only stimulating but fun, encouraging children to learn through their play, independently and in groups. We firmly believe in allowing our children to manage their own risk and create their own games with the open-ended resources we provide.

The children in our setting can use woodwork tools, make their own costumes, create their own playdough and even make their own climbing equipment, and all independently! We are an "In the moment" setting, which means we follow the child's interests and listen to their ideas, helping them to facilitate them where necessary, planning to their needs.

We have established relationships with the local library, local old peoples home and village church and are fortunate enough to be able to visit lots of the local amenities, broadening the children's experiences even further. We are a Forest School Pre-School enabling us to take the children on lots of lovely woodland adventures as well.

Our focus is on helping children to make the leap to Lower School as resilient, confident and independent little people that can mix in groups and most importantly are eager to learn.

We are a committee run pre-school and parents/grandparents can help as volunteers on the committee or just come in to help the children make magic. Families are encouraged to be as involved as they can with their children's learning and are welcome to come in to pre-school anytime.

We take children from two years of age to school age, from Barton, the surrounding villages and Luton. As a charity we ensure all our fundraising efforts are put back into the business, refreshing the learning environment and ensuring we operate above government set staff ratios to enable all children to have the attention they deserve.

We are very proud of our pre-school and our children, please contact us for further information.

Shelton Lower School

HALF FORM ENTRY - SMALL YEAR GROUPS - ALL YEARS WELCOME

We Are OPEN to All!

We are very proud of the nurturing values our children develop as being part of this values based school. No one gets left behind at Shelton! New parents and children are welcomed by all at Shelton Lower School, including them in everyday school life from day one.

We are a small rural school with half form entry, age range from 4 to 9 years of age. Each of our year groups can accommodate 15 pupils. Our children receive extra support, or extra challenges, to achieve their full potential. Our teachers work to enhance experiences for all of our children and are adept at identifying and supporting each child (and their parent/carer) in their development, nurturing children and supporting families.

We are inviting families to come and join our wonderful school community. We are the Small School with the Big Heart, and pride ourselves in making school not just about academic achievement but also in helping our young people achieve socially as they grow and develop.

We are easily accessible from Wootton, Marston Moretaine, Kempston, Houghton Conquest, Stewartby, Lidlington and surrounding areas, and part of the Wootton Pyramid, with our lower school ultimately feeding into Wootton Upper School, so your children would have a smooth transition to their next stage of education.

One of the important aims of our school is to develop independent learners. This includes developing children's mindsets to understand making mistakes should be seen as learning opportunities, not as failures, and trying new activities.

For 2019, children have been enjoying swimming lessons as part of their weekly curriculum, at Flitwick Leisure Centre - their team aiding the children's skills, confidence and safety in the water. Children are also enjoying lunchtime clubs of Dance, Cheerleading, Multisports and Cricket.

Our school has a CPRE award 2018 Forest School on-site, accessible weekly to all children. Forest School provides an enhanced educational experience in a 'hands on' manner, encouraging children to develop their self-esteem, confidence, and a questioning approach, along with an appreciation of nature, in a fun, positive and safe way. Forest School is a wonderful addition to our offering, promoting wellbeing and mindfulness. Shelton Lower School pupils are currently working towards achieving the Woodland Trust's Platinum Award for our Forest School.

ROUTE66 BARBERS

Celebrating 3 years of trading on Silsoe High Street

Male grooming is all the rage these days. It's no longer a niche thing, it's a necessity. Gone are the days of just a short back and sides! When Route66 opened three years ago, our aim was to be a traditional gents barbers offering great quality of service – but ...with a modern twist. It's our mission to treat you with good old-fashioned courtesy whilst giving you an up to date look so that you leave us walking tall and perfectly groomed. We set the standards that others are judged by.

When we first opened there were just two barbers, but now we are four. We are proud of the incredibly loyal customer base which has grown over the years and kept all of the staff busy and we would like to give a big thank you to all you guys for your ongoing support.

As well as providing top notch grooming services, Route66 also takes great pride in the work we've done with the local community. We love displaying art-work in the window for Silsoe Preschool and we also work with Bedford Autism, opening on the first Sunday of the month for anyone with special needs. Our owner, Teri, has been worked with autistic adults and children for over 25 years. Autistic children often find that having their haircut can be a disturbing experience. This is due to sensory challenges associated with the condition. The feeling of hands running through their hair and landing on their face or body, as well as noise of scissors or electric clippers can cause great distress. All the staff at Route66 are very aware of the problems. We consider kindness and patience two of our greatest strengths.

The number of children having their hair cut at Route66 has been steadily increasing so we decided to create an area separate from the main barbers especially for kids. They can sit on a minion scooter and watch their favourite DVD from our large selection whilst having their haircut. We believe that first haircuts are special so we like to send mums and dads home with a lock of their little ones hair. Every event in our children's little lives should be magical.

So, adult or kid, we'd love to welcome you here. Just pick up the phone and give us a call. And if you require a private appointment on a Sunday morning please call Teri on

With Anne Bryant

Do you find it difficult to speak up?

Have you ever had one of those moments where someone says something offensive or inappropriate, and you don't know how to react?

Whether it's at work or at home; with friends or with strangers, often you have that split second where you really want to say something, to protest and to make it known that actually that thing that they just said was not okay. It can be particularly hard if they themselves are blissfully unaware that what they said was offensive. You want to say that it made you feel uncomfortable, and that you'd really rather they didn't do that again, but often we just don't say anything. Why is this?

As humans we are hard-wired for connection with other people. This stems back to caveman days, when being part of a social group was literally critical to your survival. If you got ill and were unable to hunt or scavenge for berries, you only survived if you were part of a social group that fed you until you get better.

So now, when faced with the prospect of actively choosing to challenge someone about their behaviour or attitude, it brings the risk of social isolation. We worry that we might offend them, or that it might make things really awkward between us. There is a concern that it could escalate into an argument, and sometimes we talk ourselves out of speaking up because we doubt our ability to judge the situation correctly. What if we're blowing this up out of all proportion?

So what happens when we don't speak up?

It's not uncommon to quietly seethe about what happened, and to feel really annoyed with yourself that you didn't say anything. If you're anything like me, you'll replay the conversation in your head a thousand times where you respond to the perpetrator with a brilliantly witty and crushing put-down, worthy of Oscar Wilde.

So how do you find the courage to speak up in situations like this?

The first step is to 'start with heart' – in other words, to have the right intention for speaking up. If your aim is to punish the perpetrator or win the argument, you're headed for trouble. But if you set the intention to have a conversation that creates more understanding between you both and to explain why what they said was not okay, you're on track for a successful outcome. You can find the remaining steps at www.lifesparkcoaching.net/courageous-conversations or by scanning the QR code below.

Tricia's BEAUTY

Summer HAIR LOVE

How is your hair feeling? As the sun begins to make more of an appearance there is no hiding a bad hair day under a hat anymore. No need to panic! Follow these simple steps and you will be shaking your summer locks in no time.

The first thing is to book a haircut. Trim all the dry split ends as it's futile to try and 'mask' hair damage if you don't start with the basics. And, if you have coloured hair, ask your hairdresser's advice for the best products to use that will prolong your hair colour and keep it looking healthy and glossy.

Some salon brands can be pricey but no worry, there are alternatives you can try at home.

1. Organic coconut oil is an amazing alternative to maintain healthy nourished hair. It works best after you have just washed your hair and the hair shaft is open and receptive to hydration delivery. Most coconut oils are solid in form so either warm a small amount in your hands or place a small lump in a container and stand in a small bowl of hot water. Do not microwave or heat the oil on the cooker as this will heat it to a higher temperature and you risk burning yourself. Apply the oil from the mid length to the ends of your hair and massage gently to coat your hair. If you have a dry scalp, massage a small amount into your scalp also. You can either leave this for 30 minutes or overnight but make sure you cover your pillow with a towel or an old case, or wear a shower cap. Wash your hair the next day with a sulphate free shampoo, (preferably organic) to maintain the condition of your hair.
2. My top tip for hair on holiday is to wash your hair in the morning, comb an intensive conditioner through to the ends of your hair and gently tie / braid your hair and wear a sun hat if possible. Wash the conditioner out in the evening and your locks will be super silky and shiny. There are also UV hair protection sprays. Charles Worthington have a great summer hair care range for travel.
3. Diet, nutrition and hydration are contributing factors to your hair health so increase your water intake during the hot summer months.

The Garden Diary

Staying Safe in the Garden

As the run up to summer really starts to gather pace, more of us will be out in the garden tending our borders, mowing the grass, and generally finding any reason at all to NOT be indoors. So it's worth remembering to keep yourself (and others) safe - it's a dangerous place out there!

Top 10 causes of garden injuries:

Lawnmower, flowerpot, hedgetrimmer, secateurs / pruners, spade, flower trough, garden fork, shears, hose or sprinkler, garden cane.

It's no real surprise that the poor old lawnmower tops the list of ways to get yourself off to A&E. From electric shocks and burns, to eye damage from flying stones and toe injuries, it's a wonder that any grass gets cut! Try:

- 1) Wearing the right gear, from gloves to strong shoes - and even safety goggles where damage to eyes could be a risk.
- 2) Leaving yourself enough time to get the job done - there's always tomorrow if you can't finish off in one day.
- 3) Not taking shortcuts, eg don't fill up your petrol mower where you intend to start it up.
- 4) Putting tools away and keeping your workspace tidy.

If you thought keeping all your tools and equipment locked out of harm's way in the shed was going to prevent accidents, you'd be wrong. The wildlife can be pretty dangerous too!

Last year, one customer of mine had an aggressive pheasant resident in his garden. You might think it sounds innocent enough, but every time I'd bend down to pick something up, the crazy bird would go for my face! More obvious hazards include wasps and bees, so keep alert for nests in the ground, and also for caterpillars, such as those of the oak processionary moth, which can trigger asthma attacks and skin inflammation. Compost can also trigger breathing problems, so some gardeners may need to wear a mask to reduce the associated risks.

Other things to consider:

- 1) Slap on some sunblock (and a hat as required).
- 2) Drink plenty of fluid in hot weather (although not from standpipes as not all is drinking-water quality).
- 3) Keep a first-aid kit close to hand. Prevent existing wounds from becoming contaminated.
- 4) Know your limits - eg don't try to lift overly heavy loads on your own.

The benefits of gardening far outweigh the potential hazards, so don't be put off. In fact, you're more likely to have an accident inside your home than outside! Find even more comprehensive common-sense guidelines on this page of the RHS website: www.rhs.org.uk/advice/profile?pid=54

THE CAR MAN

Tim Saunders

KIA STONIC

Perhaps its old age setting in but I value a sat nav more and more. In fact the strength of a car can plummet in my eyes if it is fitted with a substandard device.

So it's the first thing I look at when I sit in the Kia Stonic. And I am very impressed. It is extremely easy to use ... and it works! It's easy to punch the destination details in and then it gets to work guiding you with precision. There are two little issues though; sometimes the instructions can be a little delayed for my liking and the voice sounds suspiciously like Theresa May!

As I sit in the driver's seat there seems to be a raised ride height but I'm not so sure because when it's parked alongside our Vauxhall Corsa both cars seem to be the same height. Looking out of the windscreen you instantly appreciate the sculpted bonnet, which certainly creates interest. It's an estate car with the feel of an SUV. The grey fabric seats are comfortable and the door inserts in the rear are made of hardwearing plastic which is a good choice for mucky children.

My children still require child seats so ideally seatbelt points need to be well spaced to avoid causing me unnecessary aggravation when belting them in. Unfortunately, although the width of the Kia is certainly not slim the belt points don't allow for the cumbersome child seats meaning that it takes twice as long to strap each child in.

And what's with the name Stonic? Was it conjured up by an ever so slightly tipsy marketing team? Did they mean to call it tonic? But then the other day, while admiring the rear - where the name can be found - I notice that the 'S' is larger than the 'T' which got me thinking that as the emphasis is on the 'S' perhaps this could refer to 'super' or 'special' - a super or special tonic. A number of options here but all positive, I suppose.

In conclusion, it's an attractive little estate car which easily accommodates five occupants and there's a good size boot that swallows a pushchair and luggage.

Let's Cook

Sue Lang owns and runs the Black Cat Farm Shop. She delights in offering locally grown, fresh, seasonal fruit and veg, along with hand-crafted bread, cheese, meat, milk, oil, honey and preserves. She's passionate about supporting local producers and is now sharing her favourite recipes with The Oracle.

Spring minestrone soup

Asparagus is still plentiful in June, but you may be getting a little tired of having it steamed with butter, griddled on the BBQ or with dippy eggs. This recipe is versatile and is great for a filling lunch or a light supper. If you would like a vegetarian/plant based soup, omit the bacon, swap the chicken stock for a well flavoured vegetable stock and swap the Parmesan for a vegetarian cheese.

INGREDIENTS

- 77g diced pancetta
- bunch of spring onions finely sliced
- 1 fennel bulb, halved and thinly sliced (or 4 sticks of celery if you don't like fennel)
- 2 garlic cloves, chopped
- 1 litre chicken stock
- 2 x 400g tins cannellini beans drained and rinsed. Use chick peas if you'd like a little more 'crunch' from the beans.

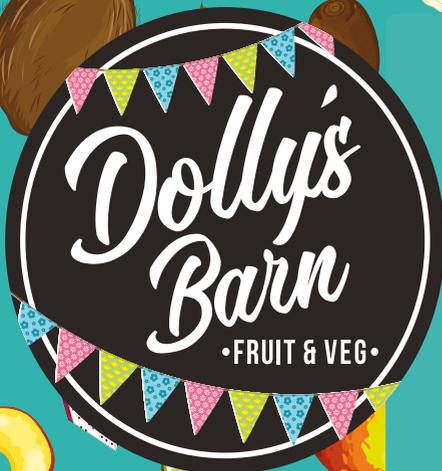

- 125g asparagus tips
- 150g sugar snap peas halved lengthways
- 100g frozen peas (or French beans trimmed and cut into 1cm pieces)
- 125g baby spinach
- 50g parmesan finely grated, to serve
- crusty bread to serve

METHOD

1. Put the pancetta into a large non-stick pan and cook until crisp and the fat has rendered. Add the spring onions and fennel with some seasoning, and cook gently for 5 minutes until the fennel is beginning to soften. If you aren't using the Pancetta, cook the vegetables in a couple of tablespoons of Rapeseed Oil.
2. Add the garlic and cook for 1 minute until fragrant, then pour in the stock and beans. Bring to the boil and simmer for 5 minutes, then add the asparagus tips, sugar snaps and beans (if using) and simmer for another 5 minutes.
3. Stir in the peas and spinach, and cook for a few minutes until the spinach has wilted, then spoon into bowls, top with parmesan and serve with bread, if you like.

DON'T FORGET TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY WHILE YOU'RE AWAY

The summer holidays are just around the corner. We put a lot of effort into planning our perfect summer break, but we often don't put quite as much effort into making sure that while we're away relaxing our home is safe.

Most burglars are opportunists, who target empty homes. This means that the holiday season is bonanza time for them. However, a little preparation can save a lot of distress. 60 percent of burglars gain entrance through rear or side windows and doors so make securing these a priority.

Fences and hedges are the first line of defence against uninvited guests so should act as an effective barrier, rather than just being attractive borders. The Metropolitan Police recommend 'hostile plants'; plants that are spiky, prickly or very dense. Don't let them grow too high though, your home should be visible from the street and to your neighbours. The idea is not to provide a hiding place for intruders! Protect the entrance to your property too. If a gate isn't practical, consider covering pathways with gravel. Thieves don't like to announce their presence and the sound of footsteps on gravel is often enough to put them off entering.

Motion-activated lighting and well-lit paths and driveways are also a good deterrent. Outside security lighting is cheap to set up, and low energy light bulbs keep running costs down. Also, consider installing a burglar alarm - as well as protecting your property, having an alarm can also lower your insurance premiums.

While you're away on holiday, some extra precautions will help protect your possessions. Keep valuables out of sight. If they can be seen, then someone might be tempted to try to steal them. Don't close curtains in the daytime though, as this announces to the world that your house is empty. Invest in timer switches to turn lights and the radio on and off. Cancel any milk or newspaper deliveries.

Inform a couple of trusted neighbours that you will be away. Ask them to keep an eye on your property and offer to do the same for them while they are away. Little tasks like moving the post away from the door, and drawing your curtains in the evening will make it look as though someone is in. They could even park a car on your drive if you are taking yours away. Offer to do the same for them when they go on holiday.

Join your Neighbourhood Watch Scheme, or if there isn't a local scheme, set one up. Neighbourhood Watch has an excellent track record of deterring opportunistic thieves.

A little vigilance and some common sense go a long way to protecting the things you love. Follow these simple steps and you will be able to relax on holiday knowing your home is as safe as it can be.

Grand Canyon – Marvel at the huge natural wonder that is one of the world's most spectacular sights.

Las Vegas – Experience the glitz and glamour of the famous strip that never sleeps. From world-class shows, exciting thrill rides to the iconic famous casinos.

Los Angeles – The City of Angels. Walk along the famous star-studded streets to snap a picture next to your idol's name, spot the iconic Hollywood sign and take in the nightlife of Downtown LA.

San Diego – Offering everything from a bustling city to relaxed beaches.

Whether you're interested in learning about the Civil War or experiencing the vibrant birth of the Blues and Jazz music, there is a rich, deep culture at every turn in the road along a Deep South road trip. Highlights here include:

Atlanta, Georgia – Take in the classic American culture, with its rich Southern traditions, cultural diversity and famous iconic sights.

Nashville, Tennessee – "Music City". Enjoy the classic American country music right in the heart of its origin.

Memphis Tennessee – Music is again at the heart of this city where you can walk in the footsteps of legends such as Aretha Franklin, Johnny Cash, Otis Redding and Elvis Presley.

New Orleans – The very birthplace of Jazz.

Driving down Route 66 is something only dreams and films are made of. With some of America's must-see sights along the way the 2400 mile stretch takes you from Chicago to Los Angeles, covering 8 states and 3 time zones.

One of my most popular choices is an 18 day trip that has everything Route 66 has to offer. You'll fly directly into Chicago before embarking on an adventure that takes you through St Louis, Springfield, Tulsa, Amarillo, Santa Fe, Albuquerque, Gallup, Flagstaff, Las Vegas and Los Angeles

Upgrade your house with SIMPLY BATHROOMS

You spend a lot of time at work, so it's really important to like what you do. If you enjoy your work AND manage to be in business with your mates, then that really does tick all the boxes. Lifelong friends, David Giles and Andy Board set up Simply Bathrooms together 4 years ago. Both have over 20 years' experience; David in the building and plumbing trade and Andy in tiling. It just seemed to make sense to them to combine their expertise and knowledge to create a company.

The bathroom is one of the most important rooms in your house. It sets the tone for the rest of your home and people often judge a whole house on the condition of the bathroom.

Have a new bathroom fitted is a big commitment, so you really need to trust the company you give the job to. David and Andy were determined that their company would provide an excellent service to their clients from start to finish and to that end they put together an expert team of local tradespeople: Richard Copperwheat takes care of the electrics, Kane Walker is a plumbing and heating engineer and Dean Jackson is the carpenter. There there's Sophie who keeps them all in check: "It may sound like a cliche but we really are one big happy family, always looking out for one another and trying to give the very best experience possible to our clients."

Any company lives on its reputation, and the standard of Simply Bathroom's work has ensured that the company grows week by week. As the name suggests, they do everything bathroom related, from the design and supply to the fit but they can also carry out any other general building requirements and renovations. Their aim is to give you the bathroom of your dreams for a price that suits you.

The Simply Bathrooms team is also very 'community minded.

In September they are all taking part in a local fund raising event to support Breast Cancer Research and they also sponsor Flitwick Lower Football Club.

This year they opened a new bathroom and tiling showroom in Maulden and the aim is to expand again next year. It's a local business working for local clients employing local tradesmen - all working together to provide a quick and friendly service. No outsiders. No hidden costs. So if you're thinking about upgrading your house with a new bathroom, give Simply Bathrooms a call now.

Welcome To Waterford Kitchens.

We are a family business who have been supplying top quality kitchens to High Street showrooms, developers and individual clients for 30 years. We would welcome you to visit our factory and showroom in Ampthill where we have several room sets, from cutting edge contemporary designs, to the more traditional hand painted framed kitchens.

All our cabinets are manufactured at our Ampthill factory offering the flexibility and the cost effectiveness of buying directly from a manufacturer.

We only use the finest materials for drawer systems, hinges and storage solutions as we believe these are at the heart of the kitchen. We manufacture using the latest CNC techniques and in the last two years have invested a substantial amount on the very latest CNC machinery to ensure our quality remains at the peak of excellence.

Whether you require a supply only kitchen or a full installation, we can offer the service you need. All our tradesmen are local professionals who work to an extremely high standard from the most straightforward project to full room refurbishments with decoration.

If you're looking for something special for your new kitchen rather than just another "Flatpack Kitchen" then why not give me a call? We offer a Free full 3D design service with a virtual tour in our dedicated design room.

FIONA GRAY

Independent Financial Advisers

Women Finance Award 2019

We are delighted to announce that advisers Helen Vaughan and Danielle Fagot at Fiona Gray Financial Planning in Ampthill have both been nominated as finalists in the 'Women in Advice 2019' Awards; Helen as 'Woman of the Year – Retirement Planning' and Danielle as 'Woman of the Year – Investment Advice'.

These awards celebrate the achievements of women working within the financial advice community and also the broader financial services sector. Overall winners in each category will be chosen in July 2019.

Helen Vaughan initially trained as an Independent Financial Adviser within a major bank and after various technical roles came to specialise in Inheritance Taxation and Trusts. In 2007 she became one of the youngest advisers to achieve Chartered Financial Planning status. She also became a Fellow of the Personal Finance Society in early 2014.

Helen joined Fiona Gray Financial Planning in September 2014 providing holistic financial advice and creating strategic financial plans. She is a generalist Financial Adviser but has particular specialisms in Pension and Retirement planning in addition to Inheritance Tax mitigation.

Danielle qualified as an Independent Financial Adviser in 2001 and now holds the Diploma in Financial Planning along with more specialist Chartered Insurance Institute qualifications in Long-Term Care and Trusts.

Working closely with legal professionals, she believes sound financial advice is a critical overlap for many standard legal services such as Pensions, Divorce work, Wills, Trusts, Probate and Later-Life Advice.

Danielle is committed to helping each client to develop their own personalised financial strategy through the use of important tools like cash-flow analysis and other specialist skills.

“ My objective was to organise my finances, particularly pension. Danielle worked closely with me to achieve a plan and way forward. This was, and still is, supported by a team of people within FGFP Ltd who have communicated clearly and responded to my every question, related or obscure. I look forward to continued working relationship as my circumstances change. Mr K.S ”

“ After a difficult divorce, I put off sorting out the pensions element of it – it was just so complicated. I needn't have worried though, Helen made it all clear for me and I now feel confident about my financial future. Ms H.B. ”

If you would like to make an appointment to see Danielle, Helen or any other member of the team, call us on 01525 712122. Initial meetings are free and without obligation.
